ACTIVATE YOUR LOVE LUCK IN 2006

Introduction to Peach Blossom Luck

The lunar year 2006 (4 February 2006 – 3 February 2007) is approaching us very soon. It may even be already here by the time you're reading this. Especially for those who are still single and desperately searching for "The One", this article will offer you some of the simplest and yet effective ways of Feng Shui that can greatly help to enhance your relationship luck - also known as Peach Blossom Luck!

In Feng Shui, Peach Blossom Luck can bring about both desirable and undesirable results. Why do I say so? Simply because for those who are single, this could mean improving your chances of successfully winning the girl's heart through Feng Shui means! On the other hand, for those who are already attached, having Peach Blossom Luck can spell trouble for you in your current relationship! Unless you want to break yourself away from this relationship, you would not want to activate this luck!

Flying Star Feng Shui

So how do we activate our Peach Blossom Luck? Let us first look at the chart below:

In Flying Star Feng Shui, these charts are known as the Annual Flying Star Charts that consists of nine distinct flying stars that possess different effects when activated. It is used by most Feng Shui masters in accurately predicting world events and even for home consultations! This chart changes with time and in this case, the chart is presented in an annual form. Looking from various time dimensions, we can similarly derive monthly, daily and even hourly flying star charts! But our focus now would be to analyze the Annual Flying Star Chart.

Ninth Flying Star – Purple Star

Remember our focus here is to activate our Peach Blossom Luck. Look at the number 9 in the chart above for 2006. The number 9 in Flying Star Feng Shui is known as the Purple Star or Peach Blossom Star and possesses a fire element. As mentioned previously, the stars' positions change with time and the Purple Star changes its position from North in 2005 to Southwest in 2006. Similarly, the Purple Star changes on a monthly, daily and hourly basis. The table below shows the locations of the Purple Star in the lunar months of 2006.

12 Strategies To Activate Purple Star

In order to activate one’s Peach Blossom Luck, one needs to activate the Purple Star. From my experience, activating the annual Purple Star is good enough. If you want to go further, you can activate the monthly Purple Star. Further to this, it will be unnecessary and illogical to activate the daily and hourly Purple Star.

The following are 12 easy strategies that you can use to effectively activate the Purple Star of your house or bedroom. As you spend most of your time in your own bedroom, it would be more effective to apply the principles of Feng Shui to your own room, depending on what items are to be placed.

1. Create your very own “Peach Blossom Bed” by placing your bed against a wall in the Southwest sector of your bedroom as the Southwest is where the Purple Star resides in 2006! Assuming after taking directions with a compass standing in the centre of your bedroom, you obtained the diagram below. You can then place your bed, occupying as much space in the Southwest sector of your bedroom as possible.

Placement of Bed in the Southwest Sector

However, there are some taboos in Feng Shui when it comes to placement of bed. I shall not elaborate too much on this aspect as it is beyond the scope of this article.

2. Getting down from the bed every morning at the Southwest sector of your bed is something you should add to your Feng Shui practice in enhancing your Peach Blossom Luck. What do I mean by this? Stand in the centre of your bed holding a compass in your hand. Locate the Southwest direction. Look at the diagram below and assume this to be your bed. Divide the bed into 9 equal parts and locate the Southwest sector (shaded in red) of your bed and make sure that you get down from this sector every morning when you wake up.

Some of you may ask “What if I cannot get down at this sector of the bed as it is a wall?” This is the time when you bring in the monthly Purple Star! Remember there are always alternative solutions to a Feng Shui dilemma. It is up to you to explore the different possibilities! The same applies to whatever problems you face in your life.

3. To strengthen your love luck further, you can place 9 stalks of fresh red flowers in a red vase to be located in the Southwest sector of your bedroom. 9 red stalks are used because 9 and red, being fire elements, enhance the fire nature of the Purple Star. Moreover, flowers whose element belongs to Wood further help to produce Fire, in this case strengthening the Purple Star. Note that flowers with thorns should be avoided as thorns symbolize poison arrows that are not beneficial for relationships!

Red Flowers

4. Peach blossoms are very popular among the Chinese during Lunar New Year. These flowers are most effective in activating the Purple Star. Simply place these beautiful flowers in the Southwest sector of your house.

5. Pomegranate trees are also well known for its effectiveness to enhance one's peach blossom luck. You can place it in the Southwest sector of your house or garden.

6. Red Chilies can also be used to activate the Purple Star. Placing nine red chilies in this the Southwest sector of your bedroom will bring out the fire element of the Purple Star.

7. Magazines or books, made of paper whose element is wood can also be placed in the Southwest sector. Up to this point, I believe you, being an intelligent reader would question how many and what kind of magazines or books to put. As the theme of this exercise is love-related, it would be advisable to use books or magazines with love-related content, for example love novels. As for how many books/magazines to place, the magic number is 4 or 9. This is because 4 in Feng Shui represents wood and 9 represents fire. Again, we are using the idea of wood producing fire in this case!
8. A tortoise whose element is fire represents longevity, in this case lasting relationships and abundance of auspiciousness. 9 represent fire, hence having 9 wooden tortoises represent very strong fire and auspicious love luck that is capable of activating the Purple Star. If you wish, you can place one live tortoise in this sector.

Terrapin

9. Place 4 ducks made of wood in the Southwest sector of your bedroom! Why must it be 4 and wooden? 4 represents wood in Feng Shui and we are now using strong wood to produce fire (Purple Star is an element of fire). Ducks written in Chinese is “ya”. The word “ya” has a “jia”. “Jia” is one of the ten heavenly stems that represents wood. Look at the productive cycle below:

Productive Cycle of Five Elements

10. Placing a red lamp in the Southwest helps to boost the fire element in this sector.

11. Do you know electrical appliances can also help to improve your luck in relationships when placed at the correct positions? At the Southwest where the Purple Star resides, you can place your television and DVD player at this location in your bedroom. If you have placed your bed in this position, you can place the appliances in the sector based on where the monthly Purple Star resides. In this case, both Annual and Monthly Purple Stars are activated, doubling your Peach Blossom Luck! As these electrical appliances belong to the element of Fire, it can effectively activate the sector here.

12. To maximize the effectiveness of strategy #11, you can play movies that are related to the following four horoscopes: Rat, Horse, Rabbit and Rooster. In Feng Shui, these are the four horoscopes that are related to Peach Blossom. Now, let's see how we can apply this principle to choosing an appropriate movie to watch.

Rat in FengShui language is known as "Zi". Bats are a type of flying rats. Hence, you can play the movie "Batman" or other related movies.

Horse is "Wu". "Wu" can represent cars; hence you can play movies related to car racing.

Rabbit is "Mao". The brand Playboy is symbolized by a rabbit. Watching movies related to play boys help too.

Rooster is "You". "You" can mean ice and snow. Watching movies related to these areas may help.

Related Movies

Are these types of movies effective in boosting love luck for everyone? It all depends on which horoscope you belong to! Look at the table below:

Your Horoscope	Related Movies
Rat	Rooster
Ox	Horse
Tiger	Rabbit
Rabbit	Rat
Dragon	Rooster
Snake	Horse
Horse	Rabbit
Sheep	Rat
Monkey	Rooster
Rooster	Horse
Dog	Rabbit
Pig	Rat

Peach Blossom Animals

For example, if you are born in the year of Sheep, your Peach Blossom animal is the Rat. Hence, you can watch movies or cartoons related to the family of Rats, for example bats and squirrels. Take note that Rat's element belongs to Water. If your Four Pillars (year, month, day & hour of birth) require water, then this will certainly boost your love luck. If not, the effect will not show.
